DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-9 and 33-38 drawn to pharmaceutical compositions comprising compound of structure I.

Group II, claim(s) 10-12, 19-20 and 47, drawn to extract of tissues from Forsteronia refracta and method for preparing the extract.

Group III, claim(s) 13-16, drawn to a method of inhibiting Rsk activity with a compound of formula III.

Group IV, claim(s) 17-18, drawn to a method of screening for Rsk activity.

Group V, claims(s) 21-32, drawn to a method of treating a disease or a condition characterized by inappropriate Rsk activity.

Group VI, claims(s) 39-46, drawn to Method of detecting neoplastic cells.

The inventions listed as Groups I-VI do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT rule 13.1-13.3. PCT 13.1 states that the international application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions linked as to form "a single general inventive concept". PCT 13.2 indicates that such unity of invention is fulfilled only when there is a

Art Unit: 1623

“technical relationship” among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding “special technical feature”.

In the instant Groups I-VI, a “technical relationship” corresponding to the special technical feature is lacking because the special feature for patentability of Groups I-VI are:

The special technical feature of Group I is considered to be compound of structural formula I.

The special technical feature of Group II is considered to be an extract from a specific plant species.

The special technical feature of Group III is a method of inhibiting Rsk activity.

The special technical feature of Group IV is a method of screening for Rsk activity.

The special technical feature of Group V is a method of treating a disease or a condition characterized by inappropriate Rsk activity.

The special technical feature of Group VI is method of detecting neoplastic cells.

Since the method of treating a disease or condition characterized by inappropriate activity is different from that of detecting neoplastic cells, screening for Rsk activity, inhibiting Rsk activity, compositions and extracts and involve different procedural steps they are not so uniquely linked to each other.

Because the groups are patentably distinct, the search for one group is not coextensive with the others and each must be searched independently and therefore would entail a burdensome search.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

A telephone call was made to Mr. Rodney Sparks on September 9, 2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.
